James and Sally Lee welcomed their son Caden Lee on Monday, April 12. May the Lord bless this new family.

On Saturday, April 24 we will be having a Craft Fair/Bake Sale. The proceeds will be given to help with the costs of the summer missions trips. Please let Heather Kent know what you will bring to the bake sale. We also need help setting the tables up on Friday night (April 23) and taking down everything on Saturday after 4 p.m. Let Heather know if you will help.

Saturday, May 1 is the OPC Spring Picnic at William Mason Regional Park in Irvine. It is from 10-4 and includes games, potluck style lunch, devotions and a time of singing hymns.

Save the date! Beginning in May there will be an opportunity for the ladies to see the DVD series that was shown at the Women's Retreat titled "Because He Loves Me" given by Elyse Fitzpatrick. This is a 4 week series that will begin Friday, May 7 at 7:15 p.m. at Diana Post's house. We will meet each Friday evening in May to complete the series. If you have any questions talk to Diana Post.

The Ladies Spring Luncheon will be Saturday, May 15.

The youth will have a Murder Mystery Dinner on Saturday, May 15 at the Dempsey's.

As of March 31, the Actual Giving for the 2010 operating budget is $7,200 behind. Please prayerfully consider your support for our budget.
